

Special Evening Film and Dinner Saturday 17th July 7.30pm

An Angel at My Table is the internationally acclaimed second film by Oscar Winning director Jane Campion (The Piano). It is an extraordinary moving celebration of the life of Janet Frame, New Zealand's most distinguished author based on her autobiographical trilogy. The film follows Janet through her poor depression era childhood and her growing fascination with literature; her painfully shy student days and her subsequent treatment for misdiagnosed schizophrenia; and finally on her travels to Europe where she samples Bohemian life and achieves international success as a writer. Carey Fox is outstanding in the leading role of the adult Janet.
