

PHILADELPHIA ASSOCIATION STUDIES

Introductory Seminars in Psychotherapy & Philosophy 2011 - 12

AUTUMN TERM 2011
Weeks 1 - 3	Oct 11, 18 & 25	How do we come to understand ourselves and make sense of our suffering?	Barbara Latham
Weeks 4 - 6	Nov 1, 8 & 15	What is Psychoanalysis?	Marie-Laure Davenport
Weeks 7 – 9	Nov 22, 29 & Dec 7	Being available. An exploration of what gets in the way of our being available to and for others. This will include reflection on the ways the PA has tried to offer availability.	James Low
SPRING TERM 2012
Weeks 1–2	Jan 17 & 24	What has happened to sex in psychoanalysis? It was certainly there in the beginning. Where is sex now and what is gender equality?	Pamela Stewart
Weeks 3– 4	Jan 31 & Feb 7	Just wondering: thoughts on the daily practice of psychotherapy, drawing on the work of Laing, Heidegger, De Certeau and others	Miranda Glossop
Weeks 5 – 6	Feb 14 & 21	Nietzsche and Psychotherapy	Onel Brooks
Weeks 7 - 9	Feb 28, Mar 6 & 13	The meaning of community	Ian McMillan & Jake Osborne
SUMMER TERM 2012
Weeks 1 – 3	May 1, 8 & 15	The therapist as human being, looking at the work of Peter Lomas and Sabert Basescu	Paul Gordon
Weeks 4 – 5	May 22 & 29	The legacy of RD Laing and Kingsley Hall: What can we take from this to inspire us now?	Leon Redler
Weeks 6 - 7	June 5 & 12	Where is the place of the body in the consulting room? Psychotherapy and embodiment	Christina Moutsou
Weeks 8 - 9	June 19 & 26	The PA in the 21st century: Our place in the world. Do we have one?	Bruce Scott